About the Author

Brian Wesbury is Chief Economist at First Trust Advisors L.P., a financial services firm based in Wheaton, Illinois. The Wall Street Journal ranked Mr. Wesbury as the nation's #1 U.S. economic forecaster in 2001 and USA. Mr. Wesbury writes frequently for the editorial page of the Wall Street Journal and it's the Economic Editor of The American Spectator. He is also a frequent guest of Fox, Bloomberg, CNBC TV and BNN Canada TV as well as a regular on the Hugh Hewitt radio show.

About It's Not as Bad as You Think:

An upbeat antidote to the gloom and doom forecasts of the financial future, just about everyone is worried about the economy and markets. And the fear is that they will stay down for a long time. But a few brave voices say that the gloom and doom forecasts are just too pessimistic. Reality is that entrepreneurs don't give up. History is pretty clear, every time the economy is thought to be done, worn out, finished, it bounces back and heads to new highs. In fact, the economy and the markets-counter to conventional wisdom-have started to improve in the first half of 2009. Even housing is showing some signs of life.

Wesbury takes a look at the good, the bad, and the ugly-and debunks the pouting pundits of pessimism to show you how to prosper now and in the future. A breath of fresh air, Wesbury's objectivity and optimism provide welcome relief to the daily bad news stories, as he sets us all up to capitalize on tomorrow's great possibilities.
